

TREVOR SOCIAL CENTER is shown here as it looked late last week as the roof was being repaired. This structure was erected back in the early 1820's and later enlarged with the addition of a washroom, and kitchen and installation of a basement, heating plant and a well. A $6,000 loan was negotiated for the addition and this was paid off about seven years ago. The original structure shown here was one of the barracks buildings at the Great Lakes Naval Training center that was used during World War I. It was bought for $1,000.

Number Hunt, Santa Visit Dates Picked By Chamber

The "number hunt" put on by the Antioch chamber of commerce this last spring which proved so popular at that time, will be repeated by Antioch merchants on Thursday, Oct. 15, from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m.

Circulars with numbers printed on them will be mailed to 6,500 shoppers in the Antioch shopping area.

Holders of these circulars then will try to match the number on their circulars with numbers posted in Antioch stores.

If their number or numbers matched, they could purchase the item with the number on or near it at a reduced price.

The Antioch C. C. at its recent meeting in addition to setting the date for the "number hunt" also scheduled the first official visit of Santa Claus to Antioch for Saturday, Dec. 5.

Just how he will arrive here was not certain although a helicopter ride has been suggested as well as convertible car and the like.

Children will be given free candy and there will be free shows at the local theatres that day.

Under a plan adopted by the chamber, poles will be set up at the north, south and west entrances to the village from which signs advertising community events could be hung.

Permission would be asked from the state to hang such banners.

Wiring for lighting the signs and pulleys and ropes for raising and lowering signs or banners would be included on the poles.

The members voted to spend about $300 for installation of the poles.

"Flower pots" to be installed on down town utility poles also were ordered purchased. Two such pots would be installed on 16 poles in the village.

Flowers in the holders would go along with the time of the season, such as poinsettias in the winter, tulips and jonquils in the spring and roses in the summer.

Let's Take A Look!

"Wouldn't the cost of installing a complete water and sewage system on an undeveloped site raise the total building cost unnecessarily high?"

All kinds of rash estimates have been made as to the cost of this item.

To be specific and make a practical estimate, let us consider what the same installation cost at the Oakland grade school at the same intersection.

The following figures incorporate all expenses which would not be necessary if the building could use an already established water system.

Well-digging—a large well—cost at Oakland $4,340.50. The entire septic system, including all materials, came to $13,600.

Roof drainage and tiling, including a sump pump, came to $900. The labor costs for installing these extra projects came to $1,700.

There was insurance also necessary for the performance bond of this extra work and the total cost for the independent water-sewage mands of kitchen, laboratories, etc.

"Will the present high school be abandoned?"

At no time has the possibility of vacating the present high school building been considered.

When you keep in mind the ever-increasing enrollment figures which include only the children we know we must accommodate in the near future, it is obvious that all school facilities must be utilized to the fullest extent in the years to come.

This is not the time to discuss the merits or disadvantages of a unit system. That is a subject entirely unrelated to what we are discussing, and to adopt such a system at this time would be entirely impossible for both legal and practical reasons.

However, both the opponents and proponents of a unit system do agree that the recommended site fits ideally either plan.

"Would the curriculum benefit in a larger high school?"

A larger school population raises the number of students wishing to enroll in special courses, such as advanced mathematics, languages, history, etc., as well as the manual or home economics arts.

When there are enough students interested in a class to fill that classroom, then it becomes practical to widen the program and present these highly desirable courses.

It is no more expensive to have such a classroom if it is filled to capacity than it is to present a course in Freshman English, for example.

After all, each teacher teaches the same number of hours no matter what the subject matter may be.

It is relevant to mention here that it would be an unusual teacher who would not prefer to teach in an atmosphere where his talents could be utilized to the greatest extent and which would be conducive to obtaining the best possible results.

So if we wish to attract good teachers to the area, it would be to our advantage to offer better facilities.

system out there came to $20,660.50.

Since additional drainage had to be provided for in the grade school installation (which would not be necessary for the proposed high school), the total cost for a similar installation should not exceed the grade school figures by more than a small percentage, if that, even though the plans for the high school building will eventually house a larger enrollment.

Don't forget that these figures would be offset by other expenses if the existing sewage and water systems were utilized.

Installation costs of "hitching on" to such a system must be considered, plus the fact that an independent water system on school property would eliminate water bills which in the May through August period of this year, amounted to $187—for just these three months when school was not even in session.

Just imagine what a jump those water bills would take if, we'll say, 1800 students throughout the day were taking daily showers for gym, not to mention other increasing de-

Antioch City Officials Are Under $2,000 Bond

WAUKEGAN—Three Antioch city officials were held under $2,000 bond each Wednesday morning and their arraignment on charges of "palpable omission of duty" was continued to Wednesday, Oct. 7 when they appeared in Lake county circuit court.

Mayor Murrill W. Cunningham, police chief Walter Scott and village police commissioner Herman Holbek were indicted by a Lake county grand jury in connection with a probe of county enforcement of state anti-gambling statutes.

Judge Bernard M. Decker of the Lake county circuit court set the bonds after turning down a request by defense attorney Robert Nelson of Libertyville that the three city officials be released on their own cognizance.

Three other Antioch residents indicted at the same time were to be arraigned on bookmaking charges (Thursday).

Indicted for bookmaking were Russell Holtz, operator of Bud's tavern and a former president of the Lake County Tavern Owners association; James Fields, operator of Bussie's tavern, and Thomas Griffin, all of Antioch.

THE THREE city officials are being represented by Nelson and by James O'Connell, also of Libertyville. Attorney Frank Whelan of Chicago has been employed to represent the three business men.

Nelson said in a statement Wednesday morning that "I am confident their (Antioch city officials) innocence will be maintained throughout this matter."

The arraignment proceedings were continued until next week Wednesday, so attorneys may have time to complete their cases.

Neither of the three defendants entered a plea to the charges at Wednesday's court session.

The state was represented by Eugene T. Daly assistant state's attorney.

THE GRAND jury in its report issued Monday urged the creation of a Lake county crime commission to battle what it called "growing, unimpeded illegal gambling activities."

The indictments followed a seven-month grand jury probe of county enforcement of state anti-gambling statutes.

Bonds of $2,500 each were set for the three Antioch businessmen.

Two Chicago area men, Berthold Goodman, 43, of Lincolnwood, and James O. Rogers, 37, of Chicago, were indicted for confidence game and obtaining money under false pretenses.

Bonds of the two Chicago area men were set at $30,000. Each of these two men had six separate indictments returned against him.

Area Residents Differ On Power Failure

How long was your electricity off Saturday night?

That seemed to be the question among some residents of The Antioch area as they "battled" with words to see which home or section had the record length of time.

One resident of the section south of the city told of his power being off for 14 hours.

But someone living in the Grass Lake road section claimed hers was off for even longer—15 hours.

Rural Sections Also Hit Hard; Main St. Dark

Antioch's business district on the east side of Main street and the south end of Main street together with several subdivisions nearby were without electricity Saturday night during the wind and rain storm.

The two Antioch theatres had to cancel their shows that evening when power went out just after 7 o'clock. Large crowds in both show houses were given tickets good for future showings.

A strange angle to the "blackout" on the east side of Main St. was the fact that the Hammable and Brogan store on that side had its window and sign lights burning throughout the darkened time.

A few neon signs along the street flashed slightly or showed some color but otherwise the east side of Main St. was in complete darkness.

Street superintendent Ed Simonson said that several trees fell during the Saturday evening storm, including one each on Spafford St., Parkway, Winsor drive and on Broadway.

These blocked the streets for a while before city crews cleared them away. Utility lines were struck by some of the falling trees and limbs.

The Public Service Co.'s office at Lake Villa reported that lights were out in Felter's subdivision, Channel Lake Shores, Morley's subdivision and the Grass Lake road area.

Limbs falling across power company wires caused the outages.

One resident of the Grass Lake road area told the Antioch News she had no electricity for 15 hours. A neighbor of hers had electricity but no telephone service.

Channel Lake reported the storm blew down many trees and interrupted electric service in many homes there.

A tree went down across the Trevor road and another was blown down on the channel near Ernie Scheuer's place.

A group of Channel Lake Boy Scouts who went on a camporee to the Wilmot area over the weekend were "rained out."

First Graders Shown In Photos This Week

THE ANTIOCH NEWS this week continues its policy announced earlier this fall of publishing pictures of children and teachers in the first grades of schools in the Antioch area.

This week readers will find photographs taken by Editor Henry Green of the Antioch Community grade school's two first grade rooms, the Trevor school first grade and the Oakland school first grade room.

These will be seen on pages 5, 9 and 16 this week.

Pictures of other first grade classes in schools of the Antioch area will be published from time to time.

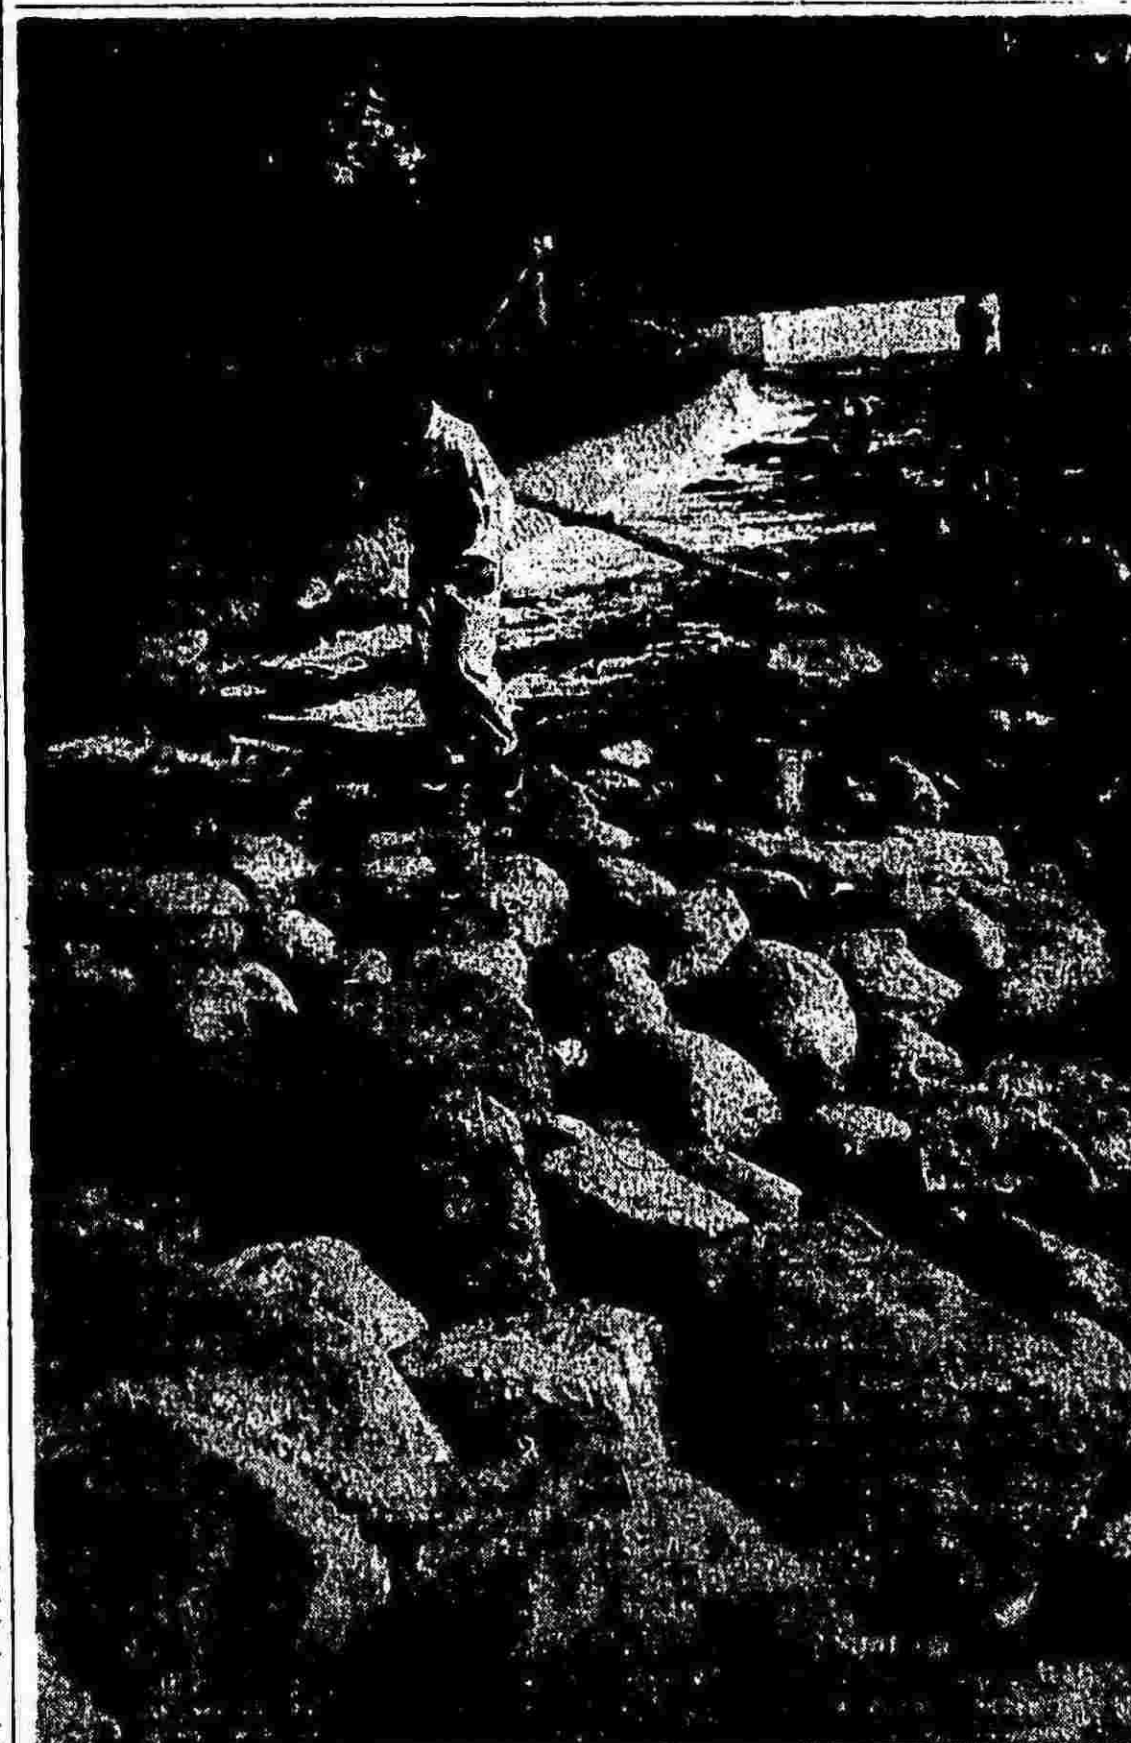

Prints of these pictures may be obtained at a small charge through the ANTIOCH NEWS. Call 43 or write to the newspaper.

Swimming Pool Fence Climbing Dangerous

Parents were urged this week to caution their children about climbing the fence or otherwise playing around the Antioch swimming pool due to dangers involved.

The Service corporation of the Antioch Lions club asked parents to warn children of the dangers of falling and injuring themselves plus entering property that is closed to them at this time of year.

Small children have been climbing the fences and endangering themselves, officials reported.

JUST FISHING on a warm sunny day were these young people and adults below the dam on the Fox river at Wilmot. And fish were being pulled in too. The boy at the left has left his rocky spot below the dam and is heading for shore. Two of the fishermen shown had long strings of fish they had caught. DEAR READER News Editorials

"Are We Doing Our Part?"

Monday, Oct. 28, three members of the Antioch Village board were indicted by a Lake County Grand Jury. Many people are asking "What does this mean to Antioch?" No one at this time can say. The question of guilt or innocence is not of prime importance any more, except of course to the persons directly involved. The mere fact that they have been indicted has attached a stigma to them and to the community.

Where can the blame for this action be placed? Must it be borne by the three men alone? We don't think so.

They were accused of palpable omission of duty in failure to suppress gambling. How many of us, in and around Antioch, were aware that something was taking place and yet did nothing. How many jokes have been passed about our "local book." People it seemed, almost took a certain pride in it. Who came forward to denounce it as illegal and declare that it must be stopped?

We don't think the blame can be borne by one man alone, or three men or even a dozen. By our public apathy, we the people of this community are as much to blame as anyone. The majority of persons who were aware of what was taking place took the attitude, "It's not hurting anything, why should I get all excited?" Maybe the gambling in itself is not hurting, but when one concession is made, how easy it is to make others.

When will people begin to realize the importance of taking an interest in their government? Possibly when this happens our elected officials will take heart in the fact that everything they do will be reflected by the attitude of the people. Apathy as we all know is a pretty contagious thing.

Before you make up your mind as to the innocence or guilt of the parties involved, before you rise up in righteous indignation at their action, before you loudly proclaim the need for action, take a quiet look in your mirror and decide, "Am I so pure, have I done everything I could to prevent this?" That's what we're doing.

"No News — Just the Story of Life"

"Why there's no news in the paper," is the universal cry of the small town newspaper reader.

Meanwhile the dailies carry the Sputnik story, TV pictures on what is happening in Timbuktu, the magazines tell you all about why Gary Cooper likes his eggs sunny side up, while radio gives you news capsules on the hour.

So harken here while the Carlinville (Ill.) Mascoupin County Enquirer editorializes:

"Somehow the small town newspaper carries the entire life of its community when serious reflection is employed, a daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smith. The baby weighed 6½ pounds and has been named Nancy. Little Nancy Smith entered kindergarten this week. Nancy Smith was valedictorian of her graduating class at Carlinville community high school yesterday."

"Miss Nancy Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Warton Smith, was married Sunday to William Jones. A son, John, was born this week to Mr. and Mrs. William B. Jones."

"Time passes, Mr. and Mrs. William B. Jones celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on Thursday evening."

"And finally — funeral services for Mrs. Nancy Smith Jones were held Monday."

"So there it is — a slowly developing, nothing sensational story — repeated week in and week out. It's the story of small towns everywhere. No news — just the story of life."

Horse, Pony 4-H Project Is Popular

Judging from the enrollments in the different 4-H club projects, it appears that horses and ponies have taken over the 4-H club program, according to Ray T. Nicholas, Lake county farm adviser.

There were 22 boys and 63 girls enrolled in the horse and pony project in Lake county this year.

This makes Lake county the leading county in Illinois in this activity.

The garden project attracted the second largest number of members, there being 37 boys and 27 girls enrolled in this work.

The third largest number of enrollments was in the photography project with 23 boys and 32 girls enrolled.

Enrollments in the other projects were as follows:

Poultry 53, Dairy 51, Rabbits 33, Dog Care 33, Sheep 31, Handicraft 26, Electricity 25, Wildlife Conservation 23, Forestry 21, and Swine 20.

Monoxide Poisoning In Home Is Possible

Closed windows, lack of proper ventilation and a faulty heater can be a deadly combination.

With the commencement of cooler weather and the heating season, care should be observed in the home to guard against accidental carbon monoxide poisoning, the state department of public health cautioned.

In 1958, 14 accidental deaths in homes in Illinois were caused by improper use of utility gas. Carbon monoxide is produced by incomplete combustion. Heating plants should be cleaned and checked annually for safe operation. If gas odor is noticed, ventilate the house and notify the utility company at once.

Carbon monoxide is also produced by faulty coal-burning units.

Baby Sitting 1.

Information on all of the above projects can be obtained from the office of farm adviser Ray T. Nicholas, at Grayslake.

Cancer-like leukosis is a potential problem in all Illinois poultry flocks. This contagious disease is primarily spread through the eggs of carriers and by contact between birds.

The Anatomy of Success: Small-Town Judge Ignores It

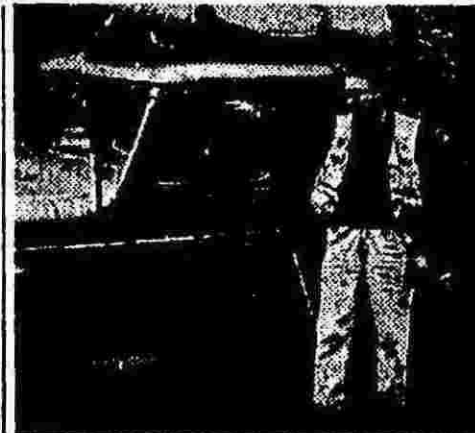

Two years ago, John D. Voelker was a little-known Michigan judge, respected by his colleagues for his knowledge of the law and recognized by friends for his unusual skill at trout fishing. Today, as a result of the smash success of his novel, "Anatomy of a Murder," written under the pen name of Robert Traver, he is approximately half a million dollars richer, a full-blown hero throughout Michigan and a celebrity in the publishing and motion picture worlds.

What effect has all this had on the Ishpeming, Michigan, judge? For one thing, it has left him in the middle of a "best-seller agony" he regards as "something strange and wonderful."

Since the day his tale of rape and murder was dubbed "one of the all-time great courtroom dramas," it has caught and kept the public fancy. The hard-cover edition of "Anatomy of a Murder" racked up a straight 65 weeks on best-seller lists and sold 186,000 copies. The paperback edition published by Dell now has sales approaching the 3,000,000 mark. And, as if that weren't enough, the movie version of "Anatomy" turned out a runaway success and is being seen by uncounted millions more all over the country.

Now when Voelker steps out of the courthouse in Ishpeming, the autograph-seekers are often waiting for him. His private preferences for trout fishing, black Italian cigars and jazz music have all become public information — especially since they are also those of attorney Polly Biegler, the hero of the novel who bears such a close resemblance to Voelker.

Fellow-townsmen in Ishpeming now expect him to be "different," the 56-year-old judge declares. But Voelker refuses to change, still nodding to everyone on the streets of his home town and still refusing to make speeches. He also still refuses to give away the location of the streams where he indulges his passion for trout fishing, although now that he has become a bona fide celebrity, his fishing grounds have become a matter of great curiosity.

Another thing that has not changed is Voelker's abiding belief in the essential "goodness and toughness" of human nature, a belief that has survived his dealings with murderers, thieves, and a host of assorted criminals.

What about that half-million dollars? Has that changed anything? It has changed Voelker's house. He now has a new one. It also bought him a new car, a jeep, a trailer, a flute, a hi-fi set, stacks of new jazz records and — as anyone who knows Voelker might have guessed — a dream collection of the best trout fishing gear available.

DEAR EDITOR Your Letters

Letters on your opinions are welcomed to this space each week. Equal weight is given on this page to your ideas and the paper's ideas on subject matter. Letters must be signed with complete names and addresses but will be withheld upon request. No letter should exceed 300 words.

Dear Editor:

I am writing this letter for one reason and one reason only. The people of Antioch will soon be voting for a new school and I feel, as a student, that I can best tell the conditions of Antioch high school. I personally feel that this referendum should be passed.

I am putting down some of the things I think you, as parents should know. First, at the present time we are not too overcrowded, but next year it will be much more severe.

Students will multiply and the teachers will not have a place to put them. Also, think! how many students there will be to the number of teachers!

Second, even if there are enough teachers, which there will not be, will there be classroom space to handle the mass crowds of pupils coming in?

The answer is "no" to my knowledge. Right now there is not enough lab equipment; what about the future?

Third, the subjects that you can pick as your electives now will be even more limited.

Last, a saying slipped into my mind. "Maturity is Security." Are you mature?

You might say, "Oh yes, I am very mature." But think—when you vote no, security is gradually slipping away, not only to you but from our whole country.

I would like to explain that last statement. Without the proper facilities and teachers, both students and teachers are handicapped; the teacher can't teach, and the students can't learn.

If there is a large class, the pupils can't get special attention.

I don't want you to think that I am a communist but let us for one moment glance at the U.S.S.R. and their type of educational system.

Yes, the discipline and the schooling is very strict, but the thought behind it is marvelous. They have the best equipment and the best teachers. Let us rank number one in the educational field!

Please take into consideration all the things that I have said and come to your own decision. But please bear in mind one thing: you are judge, jury, and executioner.

1. Judge: Has this article told you all the problems you did not understand?

2. Jury: Whether this article has made you realize that we need a new school.

3. Executioner: If we don't get a new school. "Let's get out and vote when the time comes."

The vote I hope will be "YES." Thank you very much,
Mary Jane Jensen

SE Wisconsin People Injured

Several southeastern Wisconsin residents were injured in accidents Sunday and Saturday.

Three were hurt Saturday night in a collision at the intersection of highway 83 and county route C.

The driver of the other vehicle involved, Werner Schnurrpisch, 38, of Mundelein, Ill., suffered a cut on the head and a sore right arm.

Herman Harmon, 18, of Camp Lake suffered a slight head injury when brakes of an auto in which he was riding locked and the vehicle went out of control and struck a tree.

This took place on county highway KD just south of county C just after noon on Sunday.

Frank W. Damit, Jr., of Chicago, the driver, was bruised and shaken up, and Rodney Moscar, 16, of Oak Lawn, Ill., received an injured knee.

Moose Topics

There will be a ceremonial of taking new members into the legion of the Moose, at 2:30 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 4, at Waukegan Moose lodge.

Moose members' wives will be welcome to attend. There will be entertainment for the ladies.

Robert Avery, governor of Antioch Moose lodge, reports that plans are progressing for the 10th anniversary party coming up soon. Details will be announced.

All Moose members are invited to come to the Moose home Friday nights for the fish fry which also includes chicken and shrimp. Supper hours are from 6 to 8:30 p.m.

Ronald Polson was elected and installed as prelate on the last regular meeting night, to fill in the station vacated by Walter Good.

Boy Scout Troop 92, sponsored by the Antioch Moose, hiked across country to Camp Wilmot, where they camped out, for the fall camporee, last weekend.

One safety precaution commonly neglected by motorists is having a supply of red flares on hand to mark the roadside position of a car in case of nighttime difficulties.

Plenty of Apples Ready For Picking

About 60,000 bushels of apples are still available for public picking at Bell's Mossley Hill orchards near Lake Zurich at the intersection of route 22 and U. S. Highway 12 this week.

Fewer than 10,000 bushels have been picked up to this time out of an estimated 75,000 bushels on the trees at the start of the "pick your own" program.

Thousands of people visited the orchards this past Sunday to do their own picking.

Someone will win a tree full of apples simply by estimating the number growing on a "prize tree" as a feature of the 1959 program. A special tree has been set aside in a golden-rope enclosure.

Recent births at Waukegan hospitals have included a son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Forbes of Antioch; a son to Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sandre of Ingleside, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Connell of Lake Villa, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Julian of Round Lake and a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Spiegel of Lake Villa.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rhymer, who live south of Antioch, had as their guests last week, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Boehm of Alexandria, Va.

Agricultural 4-H Interest Growing

The enrollment of agricultural 4-H members hit an all-time high in Lake county in 1959, according to Ray T. Nicholas, Lake county farm adviser.

There were a total of 393 4-H club members enrolled in the 14 different agricultural 4-H clubs.

Part of the increase in enrollments is due to more young people becoming interested in the newer 4-H projects such as automotive maintenance, bird study, dog care and photography.

Another reason for the increased enrollment is the effort on the part of leaders to keep members in the 4-H club program longer. Members find that the longer they remain in the 4-H club program the more they can benefit.

Parents who desire their children to enroll in a 4-H club can get full particulars by contacting farm adviser Ray T. Nicholas, at Grayslake.

Salem Farm Visited During A.C.P. Tour

SALEM, Wis.—The Emil Matz farm near Salem was one of those visited Tuesday afternoon of this week during the Racine-Kenosha county ACP tour which included stops in both counties.

There those making the tour saw diversion terraces and practice no. 5 and sod waterways.

Other stops during the day were made at the Wayne Dyson and Carl Lane farms near Wheatland, the Al Svenson farm and the Ben and Mickey Robers farm, both near Randall, and the Roland Benedict farm near Bristol.

Feeding trials at the University of Illinois show that dairy heifers make faster and more efficient gains on corn silage than on sorghum silage.

WAUKEGAN—The Young Women's Christian Association, a Red Feather agency serving Lake county, announced that registration for fall classes is open to all women of Lake county.

According to Miss Oranda Bangsberg, executive director, this year's program has been expanded to further serve the interests of Lake county's women.

New classes offered for the first time this year are pinocle, charm and social dancing.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

IN-MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of Corp. Allen Dean Hanke, who was killed in action Sept. 21, 1944, Siegfried Line at Belgium.

His pleasant way, and smiling face are a pleasure to recall; He had a kindly word for each And died beloved by all.

Some day I hope to meet him—Some day I know not when, To clasp his hand in the better land, Never to part again.

Scouts to Sell Cookies Next Week in County

Yes, it's girl scout cookie time! Next week Lakeside council latermediate Girl Scouts from Gages Lake, Wildwood, Grayslake, Round Lake, Lake Villa, Antioch and Fox Lake will make house-to-house calls to sell specially boxed girl scout cookies.

This annual event is the organization's only fund raising project—so when one of these young Americans calls at your house—he sure to buy a box or two of these deliciously-fresh cookies.

You will be helping one of the greatest programs organized for the youth of our country. There are three varieties of cookies.

Each girl scout troop receives 10c per box profit which is used to further their service projects and educational trips.

The balance goes for training adult leaders, sending delegates to national and regional conferences, assisting senior scouts to round-ups and conferences.

But the biggest project Lakeside council is working and saving for is enough money to purchase or make a down-payment on land to be used for their very own camp-site.

Mrs. Harold E. Spinney, Jr., cookie chairman, says home delivery on the cookies will be made in time that they might be used for Halloween trick or treat surprises.

Unified Group Of Improvement Clubs Formed

By Jim Jankowiak
FOX LAKE HILLS—The small, ununited improvement clubs of northwestern Lake county are finally banding together to form a solid, voice-of-the-little man association. Representatives of various subdivisions and improvement groups met recently at the Long Lake railroad station.

There were delegates present from such subdivisions as Fox Lake Hills, Wooster Lake, Third Lake, Venetian Village, Lindenhurst, Duck Lake, Lotus Woods, Long Lake, Stanton Point, Nippersink and also three other improvement clubs.

The total number of delegates in attendance was 21, a marked increase from the first meeting of the master association (as it is called) when only seven subdivisions were represented.

The next meeting of this new group is on Monday, Oct. 5, at the Long Lake railroad station.

The plan for the master association was thought up by Robert J. Flaskamp of Long Lake and Leif Grude of the Wooster Lake Improvement association.

They sent out notices to presidents of the various subdivisions in the area informing them of their plan and asking for assistance.

At the recent meeting a committee consisting of J. Ireland, A. Cody, R. Behrens, R. Flaskamp and J. F. Vokac was selected to draft a letter setting forth the aims of the organization.

This letter will be sent to all those delegates present at the last session. They will then present it to the board of their respective association for action upon it.

Some of the subdivisions have already acted upon the question of joining the master association from information received earlier this fall.

The tentative name of this newly formed organization is the Master Association of Lake County Home Owners. Its purpose will be to uphold and further the effort of each member association.

There will be committees on such local problems as zoning, taxes, roads, etc. It is hoped that in numbers there will be strength.

What one improvement club can not do alone will be done by the master association.

It is hoped that more and more subdivisions will take an interest in the group's doings and join to make a strong force for the good of the residents of the rural areas of Lake county.

Those wishing further information, especially property owners' association officers, are asked to call Flaskamp at Kimball 6-1187. He will be able to supply the necessary information concerning the "Association of Associations."

Babysitting Not Bad But Helping Deliver Children Is Problem

By Pearl Kapell

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Behrens, Oakwood Knolls, are the parents of a girl, Deborah Kathleen, born Sept. 23 in Victory Memorial hospital.

Mrs. Behrens is the former Babs Serahon.

Babs is fine, but her mother-in-law, Mrs. Harry Behrens, has some new gray hairs.

She was elected to take Babs to the hospital, and there was some doubt for a while if they were going to get there in time.

Mrs. Behrens says being asked to baby-sit for her grandchildren is not so bad, but to be expected to deliver them, too, is rather above and beyond the call of duty.

However, she managed to locate a state trooper as she neared Waukegan, and with his help in speeding up the trip, everything turned out O.K.

Sequoits To Play At Warren High Friday

Locals Down Lake Forest By 7-2 Tally

"This is one game we must win," coach Bob Walther of the Antioch high Sequoits commented Tuesday on the upcoming Northwest Suburban conference football game with Warren this week Friday evening.

The local boys pulled at least a mild upset last week Saturday afternoon when they knocked over a highly regarded Lake Forest team 7-2 on the Lake Forest field.

The local mentor said Warren should be tough on its own field at Lake Zurich. Warren routed the Elia-Vernon Bears 26-0 last week.

Walther said the Sequoits knocked over what he considered the conference leader when they downed Lake Forest last week.

He stated that contrary to some newspaper reports, the local eleven dominated play in the second half of the game.

The coaching staff thought that Antioch's defense was still good but that lack of offensive ground game hurt.

THE SEQUOITS once again played as a team. Earlier in the season Walther had commented that if the Antioch squad plays as a team throughout the season it would be tough to beat.

Jack Thompson and Phil Mitchell of the local squad suffered injuries in the Lake Forest game and may see only limited action against Warren.

Don Pyles led the offensive for the Sequoits with an average of 3.2 yards per carry on 13 carries. His one completed pass covered 5 yards.

Dick Wolff averaged 3.0 yards per carry on nine attempts and four of his completed passes went for a total of 38 yards.

Two and five tenths yards were averaged by Dick Gudgeon in two carries, while Thompson in four tries averaged 2 yards.

The Sequoits gained a total of 102 yards in passing and on the ground in 32 plays tried.

PYLE INTERCEPTED one pass, returned three punts for an average of 12.3 yards and one kickoff for 55 yards. Wolff ran back a punt for 15 yards and Martin brought back a kickoff for 35 yards.

First downs were even with each team making six.

Pyles and Gudgeon each fumbled once, John Parker of the Sequoits recovering one Lake Forest fumble for a touchdown in favor of Antioch and Gudgeon recovered another home team bobbie.

Lake Forest completed three passes good for a total of 30 yards, tried 45 plays, fumbled four times and had a net gain on the ground of 48 yards compared to 102 for Antioch.

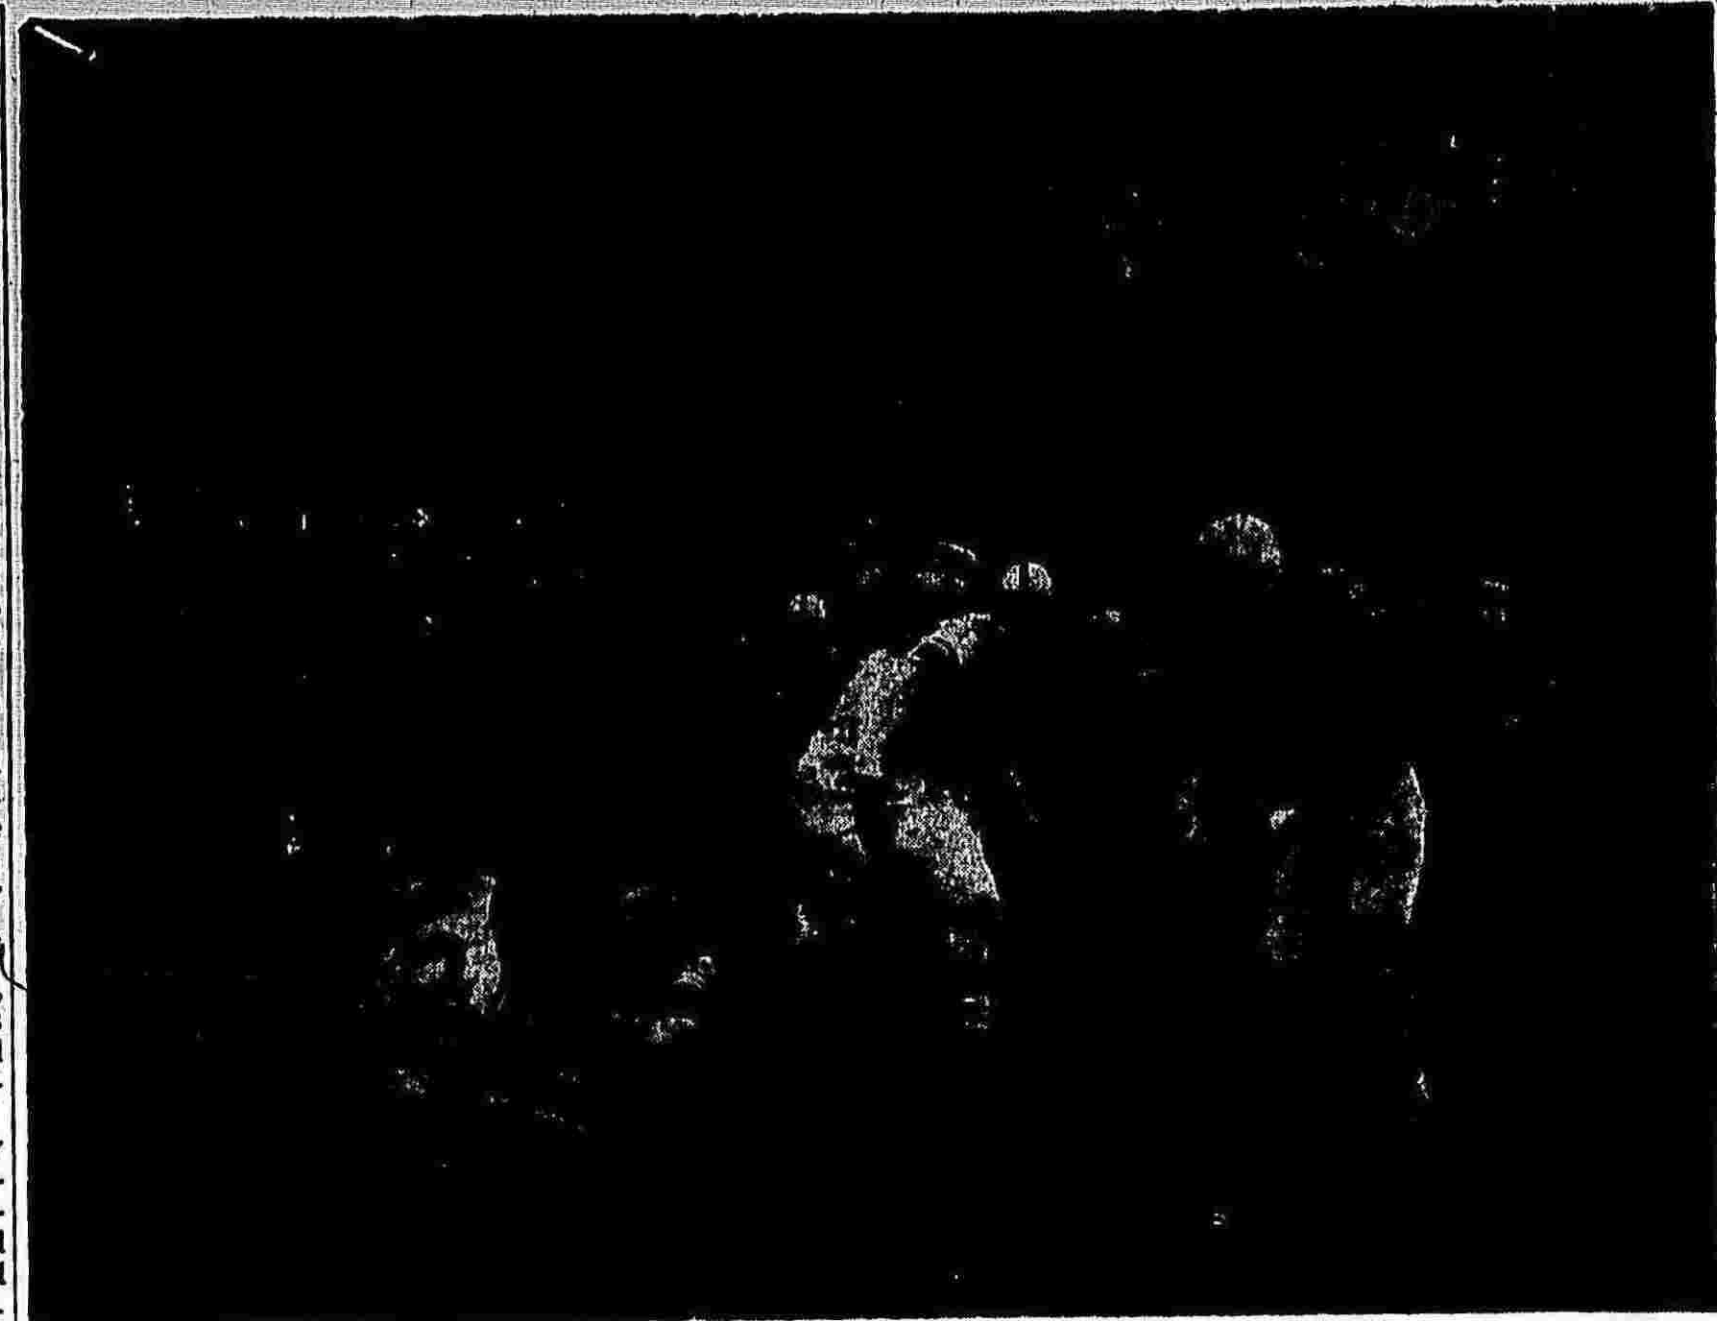

The Sequoits scored their only touchdown of the game when Parker scooped up a Lake Forest fumble late in the fourth quarter and stepped into the home team's end zone. Mitchell had hit the ball carrier hard.

LAKE FOREST tackle Marty Burns broke through and dropped Pyles in the Antioch end zone the first time the Sequoits got hold of the ball in the game. Thus the home team scored a safety and 2 points.

Antioch threatened late in the fourth quarter, moving to the Lake Forest 8 yard line but the Scouts defense stiffened and the game seemed destined to end in a 2-0 victory for Lake Forest.

But then came Parker's picking up of a Lake Forest fumble and running over the Scouts' goal line. Pyles added the extra point.

Contrary to some reports, Walther said, no Lake Forest score was called back in the first half. The home team got deep into Sequoits territory but didn't cross the goal line after the safety.

'Fumbilitis' And Wrong Way Runs Fail To Prevent Wilmot Victory

WILMOT, Wis. — Wilmot high school coaches, players and fans are hoping for another victory such as was rung up last Friday evening but not the "headaches" of that night when the Panthers face Mukwonago at 7:30 p.m. Friday on the Wilmot field.

It will be the first home gridiron contest of the season for Wilmot.

Nine fumbles and a "Wrong Way Corrigan" act gave the fans thrills, but they didn't help much in racking up a 6-2 victory for the Wilmot team, the first for the Panthers in the 1959 season.

Top ground gainer for Wilmot was 185-pound halfback Jim Ratcheck who also shone against Antioch the previous weekend.

The senior back gained 177 yards in 22 carries, including a 71-yard touchdown sprint early in the first quarter which as it turned over gave the Panthers' their winning points.

FIVE OF WILMOT'S fumbles were recovered by the Burlington Demons and the Panthers pounced on six of the Demons' misplays.

This fumbilitis on the part of both teams kept both of them from putting on touchdown drives of any consequence. However, the rain had little if anything to do with the fumbles.

Moisture didn't start to fall until the final quarter.

The wrong way run came in the final stanza when a Burlington lineman blocked a Panther punt and a Wilmot player grabbed the pigskin.

Temporarily confused, he sprinted 45 yards to the wrong end zone with two Burlington men chasing him. The safety scored in this run cut Wilmot's lead to 6-2.

WILMOT HAD a big margin statistically, making 14 first downs to 6 for Burlington, including 13 by Rushing and one on a pass. The Demons were credited with four by rushing and two by passes.

Net yards rushing showed 205 for the Panthers and 75 for Burlington, net yards passing 18 for Wilmot and 47 for the Demons and net yards gained were 223 and 122, respectively.

Wilmot attempted five passes, completed 1 and had 1 intercepted. The Demons attempted 10, completed 4 and had 2 intercepted.

The Panthers lost the pigskin five times on fumbles and Burlington lost it six times in that manner.

Wilmot lost 50 yards by penalties to five for the Demons.

Salem Drops 26-7 Game; Plays Clinton on Friday

SALEM, Wis. — Central high school's football team will be seeking its first victory of the 1959 season when it takes on Clinton at 8 p.m. Friday on the field at Paddock Lake.

This will be the first Southeastern conference gridiron game of the year for the Salem Falcons.

Fans watching the Harvard vs. Central non-conference game last Friday evening at the Paddock Lake field saw just about everything that could happen in a gridiron classic before Harvard won 26-7.

This included a blocked punt, forward and lateral passes, long runs, fumbles, recovered fumbles — you name it.

It was not a particularly good evening for football with rain coming down during much of the time, making the grass slippery and the ball a tough thing to hold.

DAN OLSEN, Harvard halfback, opened the scoring of the game when he raced about 50 yards to the Salem 4 with only minutes gone in the first quarter. Halfback Wayne Hysen went through center to the touchdown.

A point try by John O'Conner was no good and Harvard led 6-0. An 80-yard touchdown run by fullback Jack Kramer provided a thrill for the Harvard fans a few minutes later on an end sweep.

Salem had tried a few plays and then punted. Jim Schmitke placekicked the extra point.

After 4 minutes had been played in the second stanza, a Salem punt was blocked and Harvard recovered the ball on the Central high 3 yard line.

Bob Barth passed to Larry Antonson good for 8 final yards and a td. Again Schmitke placekicked the extra point and Harvard led 20-0 at the half.

THERE WAS no scoring by either team in the third quarter, but late in that period the visitors recovered a Salem fumble on the Salem 11 to set up another visiting touchdown.

Olsen went to the Center 4, and then Hysen ran for the touchdown through the middle of the line. Schmitke missed the extra point at this time and Harvard led 26-0.

Salem tallied its only td with about 4½ minutes left in the game. The home team recovered a Harvard fumble on the visiting eleven's 24, and Fred Lentz passed to Len Krawczyk, who lateraled to Gene Schulz and Schulz went to the Harvard 3.

A 5-yard penalty didn't stop the Central Falcons. Schulz drove to the 6 and on fourth down F. Lentz passed to halfback Andy Agüero for the touchdown. Agüero added the extra point to make the final score 27-6.

HARVARD RACKED up 6 first downs to 4 for Salem, including 3 from scrimmage and three from passing. Salem made three from rushing and one by passing.

The Falcons gained 105 yards rushing and Harvard 277. The home team made 28 yards through the air to 86 for the visitors. Salem netted 133 yards from passing and rushing to 363 for the Harvard 11.

Salem tried 8 passes, completed three and had none intercepted. The visitors attempted seven forwards, completed six and one was intercepted.

Turning to individual gains by Falcon players, Schulz carried six times for 20 yards, Jeff Grumbeck 12 times for 38 yards, Agüero eight times for 14 yards, F. Lentz three times for six yards and John Lentz one time for five yards.

Powerful Modifieds and Mud Races Scheduled at Waukegan on Sunday

WAUKONDA — The powerful modifieds, spectator races and a mud race will be featured Sunday evening during the auto races at the Waukegan Speedway.

After all the regular races are over Sunday evening, the track will be watered and demolition cars and strictly stock cars will be put on the track. They will race for 10 laps.

Laughs as well as thrills are expected from these races.

Billy Schwister of Milwaukee overcame a crash during the warm-up runs last Sunday evening and came back a winner in the 25 lap feature event, scoring his second feature victory of the season.

Schwister had been involved in a crash with John Fenner of Lake Zurich during the warm up runs, Schwister pulling onto the track from the pit area when Fenner blew a tire, rode the wall and smashed into Schwister's auto.

Serious damage resulted but both drivers worked feverishly on their machines and were able to compete in later events.

GREG KRIEGER of Milwaukee caused the most serious accident in the main event when he overdrove his car and hit the rear end of Dick Vanderspool of Grayslake vehicle.

Swede Erickson of Gurnee and Miles Melius of Slinger, both following closely behind, tried to avoid the mishap. Melius spun into the infield and lost nearly two laps.

Erickson hit the wall and was out of the remainder of the event.

Erik Johnson of Highland Park, also was tied up in the mess of spinning cars, hit another and was out for the rest of the race.

Dale Koehler of Glendale placed second in the main run, followed by Ethie Bierter of Barton, Ray Darnell of Deerfield, Ken Tlougan of Milwaukee, Bill Asnell and Milt Curcio of Racine.

Rod Fuller of Racine won the 15-lap semi feature after taking the lead from John Wood on the 8th lap. Russ Knapton of Milwaukee was second and Wood took third.

MELIUS TOOK top honors in the novelty race, the Australian pursuit event, and Darnell was second. Melius was the second fastest qualifier for the fourth consecutive week.

Fuller took the first heat event and Russ Olson the second. Schneider won the third heat event and Koehler the fourth in record time.

Eighteen spectator automobiles lined up for the running of their event despite the rain that started to fall lightly during the end of the feature race.

However, only one lap was run when Guy Miller of Waukegan and Bob Gawlik of North Chicago collided in the most spectacular crash of the year at the Waukegan track.

The impact sent Miller's machine rolling over and over four complete times, as Gawlik's climbed up and over the rolling machine, coming to a stop atop Miller's.

Miller's car was totally demolished and both drivers were taken to St. Therese's hospital for observation after being treated at trackside for their injuries.

Local Football Squad Guests at Restaurant

How would you like to have some 40 hungry boys and coaches drop in on you for hamburgers, french fries, malteds and the like?

Well, that's what happened to Mary's Restaurant Monday evening after football practice—and at Mrs. Mary Topercer's invitation.

Before the youths and the older "youths" were through they had eaten 81 hamburgers, 40 pounds of french fries, averaged about two malteds each and drunk some four gallons of milk.

Grant Romps 27 to 0 Over Waukegan 11

By Jim Glendenning

Grant High School Reporter.

FOX LAKE—Grant high's gridiron forces opened their 1959 Northwest Suburban league schedule in high fashion last Saturday afternoon by running over Waukegan 27-0.

Grant high will play Grayslake high on the home field at 8:30 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 3, in another conference clash.

After a scoreless first quarter last Saturday the Grant Bulldogs offense began to move.

Sparked by the potent running of Tom McNally, Sam Molose and Dean High, the Bulldogs drove down to the Waukegan 8-yard line in the second period of play.

Molose fought to the one yard line and then High drove over to score. The extra point attempt by Ed Coats was good.

Later in the same stanza, Ken Goebel playing in the wing back slot drove over left tackle and rammed 30 yards for the touchdown. The point after attempt by Coats once again was good and Grant led 14-0.

At the start of the second half, Molose ran the kickoff down to the Waukegan 30 and on the next play Joe Wilson aided by good down field blocking by Carl Heggland and Ed Schief, went all the way for 6 points.

Coats again made the extra point try and the Bulldogs led 21-0.

Late in the final quarter, Grant's defense moved Waukegan back within Waukegan's 10 yard line.

At this point the Waukegan Bulldogs were forced to punt. This was blocked by defensive guard Tom Lill and was scooped up in the end zone by John Wolf, a junior line backer.

The point after try was short and the Grant team led 27-0.

Although the Waukegan offense was fairly well contained by Grant, and its defenses showed lapses, it was a hard fought game and Waukegan is likely to give its remaining foes a tough battle.

Warren Wins 26-0

LAKE ZURICH—Warren high's football Blue Devils sparked by the passing and running of Larry Beshel, romped over Elia-Vernon 26-0 in a Northwest Suburban opening game at Lake Zurich last Saturday.

The Blue Devils are scheduled to play the undefeated Antioch high Sequoits in a conference game this week Friday evening at Gurnee.

GOP Fund Drive Leaders Named For This Area

Co-chairmen have been named to direct the Lake county division of the United Republican Fund's "Go for 60" membership campaign.

Lloyd Bowers of Lake Forest, North Suburban division chairman of the Fund, announced the leaders for the following communities:

Waukegan—Probate Judge Thomas J. Moran and Mrs. Gladys Derryberry; Lake Forest—Henry P. Wheeler and Mrs. Ansel M. Kinney; Lake Bluff—John Meade and Mrs. Gerritt A. Rutgers; Zion—James L. Paxton and Mrs. T. E. Paxton; Libertyville—Clarence E. Adams and Mrs. Arnold Nelson; Antioch—Ted Kaptain and Mrs. Richard Seyfarth.

Co-chairmen for other communities in Lake county will be named within the next few weeks, Bowers reported.

At an organizational meeting, Bowers predicted that Lake county residents will be "happy to contribute to the support of the Republican party if they are just asked to do so.

"But we must make an intensive effort at the local level to make this campaign a success," he stated.

Robert Milton, Lake county GOP chairman, has pledged the support of the regular Republican organization in the drive.

James C. Worthy, Winnetka, president of the United Republican fund of Illinois, and Samuel W. Witwer, Riverside, general campaign chairman, have set a goal of 9,000 new dues-paying members of the Republican party through this unique campaign. The Fund campaign makes memberships a chief source of revenue for the party.

Purpose of the campaign is to broaden the base of party support, increase the level of party income, regularize party financing, stabilize party organization, improve campaign planning, increase the effectiveness of political expenditures, strengthen party loyalty and provide a pool of workers for party needs at the grass-roots level.

The Illinois fund raising program has been lauded by President Eisenhower, Governor Stratton and other prominent party leaders.

ON DISPLAY! FRIDAY! SPACIOUS! POISED! BEAUTIFUL! LIVELY!

Elegant Impala 4-Door Sport Sedan—one of 16 spanking new Chevrolets you can choose from.

THE SUPERLATIVE '60 CHEVY

This is the one that says '60 like no other car. From its clean-thrusting grille to its dapper rear deck, there's so much that is new and different about this superlative Chevrolet it stands out from the rest like a fresh-minted coin. And you'll be just as wide-eyed over what's inside—the relaxing roominess, tasteful trim, hushed elegance, all comfortably cradled by Full Coil springs at all four wheels. Yet, sumptuous as this new Chevy is, you'll find new economy of operation, new dependability, new longer life. Here, then, we're confident both you and your budget will joyously agree, is the nearest to perfection a low-priced car ever came!

Here's the car that introduces a whole new decade of design—with so much that's new and different the other ones can only hope to come close.

It's the superlative '60 Chevrolet—with new space inside, new spirit under the hood, new splendor in every clean-etched line.

Freshly shaped contours rake back from the unified rear grille to the jaunty rear deck, fitted with craftsmanship you'd expect only on the most expensive makes. Inside, there's room to sprawl in, room to sit tall in—generously provided by Chevy's sofa-wide seats and extra margin of hat space. And there's even more leg room for the man in the middle—thanks to the way Chevrolet engineers have shaved down the transmission tunnel.

Out on the road, as Chevy's Full Coil ride will persuade you most gently, there's not a car near the price that comes close to the hushed comfort of this one. And, adding to your sense of silence and solidity are thicker, newly designed rubber body mounts that do an even more efficient job of filtering out road shock, tire hum and vibration.

Quiet, quick-responding power is provided by a choice of two standard engines—Chevy's famed Hi-Thrift 6 and a new Economy Turbo-Fire V8 that gets up to 10% more miles out of a gallon of regular while delivering greater engine torque at normal speeds.

Chevy's accent on comfort and convenience even extends back to its easier-to-load (and tremendous) luggage compartment. You'll also find a convenient new parking brake that automatically returns to normal height after application, a new clutch linkage that filters out even the smallest engine impulses more effectively than ever and a trim new two-toning motif that's available on all 16 fresh-minted models.

But, impressive as all this may look in print, there's really only one way to tell how near to perfection this superlative '60 Chevrolet actually comes... and that's to drop in on your dealer and drive one!

CORVAIR BY CHEVROLET! SMALL MIRACLE! THREE COMPACT CHEERS! FRIDAY!

QUIET REVOLUTION! ON DISPLAY FRIDAY! HOORAY! SMALL WONDER!

THE REVOLUTIONARY
Corvair
BY CHEVROLET

There's nothing like a new car—and no compact car like this de luxe Corvair 700.

Here's the car created to conquer a new field—Chevrolet's low-priced compact Corvair.

The product of nine years of research and development at the auto industry's most advanced facilities, it's America's first truly compact, economical car that retains the ride and 6-passenger comfort you're used to in a big one.

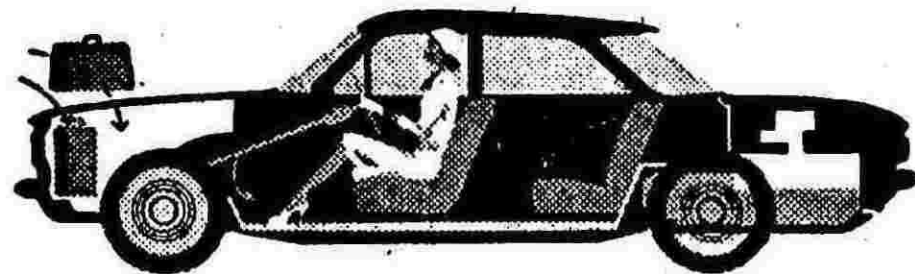

The key to this small miracle: America's first and only modern rear-mounted aluminum engine—a lightweight 6 that's so revolutionary it can be packaged with the transmission and drive gears as one compact unit.

By putting the engine in the rear, Chevrolet has made the floor practically flat, front and rear. There's plenty of foot room for everybody, including the passengers in the middle.

Shifting engine weight to the rear also makes for smoother, easier compact car handling and gives glued-to-the-road traction on ice, mud or snow.

Corvair's size—some 5 inches lower, 2½ feet shorter and 1,300 pounds lighter than conventional sedans—makes it a joy to jockey through busy streets, a pleasure to park (no need for power assists). Its revolutionary Turbo-Air 6 gets up to 30% more miles on a gallon of regular (a real magician on mileage). And, because the America's only car with an airplane-type horizontal engine! America's only car with independent suspension at all 4 wheels! America's only car with an air-cooled aluminum engine!

The engine's in the rear where it belongs in a compact car!

engine's air-cooled, you never have to fuss with antifreeze, you get quicker warmup with less wear on parts even on the coldest mornings (even heat for passengers comes quicker—almost instantly—from an airplane-type heater*).

Yet, wonderfully practical as all this sounds, you'll find the most practical thing of all about this new Corvair is its remarkably low price. Your dealer's the man to see for all the short, sweet details.

REVOLUTIONARY TURBO-AIR 6 Gets up to 30% more miles on a gallon, needs no antifreeze, provides quicker warmup with less wear on parts.

ONE-PACKAGE POWER TEAM Wraps rear engine, transmission and differential together into one compact lightweight unit. Takes less room, leaves you more.

STYLING—PURE AND SIMPLE Clean, uncluttered lines shape both 4-door models—the de luxe Corvair 700 and the standard Corvair. Each has its own distinctive trim, and you get more visibility area than in many full-sized cars.

FOLD-DOWN REAR SEAT* Works easily, instantly, adding to Corvair's versatility by enlarging rear seat cargo space to 17.6 cu. ft.

FLAT FLOOR Corvair is America's only compact car with a practically flat floor, the only one with the kind of relaxing room that U.S. motorists are used to.

UNISTRUT BODY BY FISHER Does away with conventional frame, incorporating all structure into a rigid body-frame unit that gives you more inside room with less weight.

UNDER-HOOD LUGGAGE COMPARTMENT Trunk's up front (like an elephant's) where it's convenient for groceries, luggage.

4-WHEEL INDEPENDENT SUSPENSION There's no conventional axle—front or rear. Wheels, cushioned by coil springs, take bumps independently of each other, for smooth, road-hugging ride.

Scout Troop 86 Of Channel Lake Enjoys Camporee

By Pearl Kapell

Channel Lake Correspondent
CHANNEL LAKE—Boy Scouts of Troop 86 joined in a camporee of scouts of the Northwest district at the gravel pit on the Wilmet road. The camp-out was supposed to last through the nights of September 25 and 26, but storms Saturday evening forced the boys to abandon their plans.

The commissioners' staff of the Northwest district was present to rate the various troops on their camping abilities.

Awards were to be given out Sunday morning, but because of the change of plans, Scoutmaster Ray Atwood says he may not have this information until October 7, when a scoutmasters' round table will be held at Grayslake.

About 24 Boy Scout troops and some explorer troops were present at the camporee.

The Channel Lake Community club will hold a "Membership" party on Saturday, Oct. 3, at Stanley's resort.

The party will start about 2 p. m. and continue through the afternoon. Free refreshments will be served and barbecues.

Everything free!
The only requirement is that if you are not already a member of the Community club, you must join, by paying your dues.

Happy birthday to Heather Bain on Sept. 27 and to Fred Thies, Sr., and Pat Hruby on Sept. 22.

Ray Van Patten Jr., returned to his classes at Marquette university in Milwaukee on Sept. 21.

David Lempe was host to 12 guests at a birthday party in his honor on Sept. 26. His birthday was Sept. 25.

Herb Jackisch, former resident of Channel Lake now living in Mount Prospect, left on Sept. 23 for a hunting safari in Africa.

Judy Pyles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Pyles, started her second year at Beloit college on Sept. 19.

The Jack Samways returned Sept. 28 from a fishing trip in Canada.

A meeting of the Brownies committee was held on Sept. 21, at the home of Lucile Eberman. A new assistant leader was appointed, Mrs. Lillian Voskuil.

It was decided that a cook-out for the Girl Scouts and Brownies would be held on Thursday, Oct. 1.

Present at the meeting, besides the hostess, were Mrs. Lois Ward, Mrs. Lillian Voskuil, Lorraine Lindblad and Betty Hameau.

Mrs. Grace Amendola's room, third and fourth grades, had the most parents present at the PTA meeting at Channel Lake school last week. The PTA will meet on the third Wednesday of every month from now on and many plans are being made to assist the teachers by taking some of the work of extra-curricular activities off their hands.

Room mothers have been appointed for each room—

For Mrs. Karczewski's room, Mrs. Hameau and Mrs. Burnette; Mrs. Kalth's room, Mrs. Spencer and Mrs. Voskuil; Mrs. Amendola's room, Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Willis; Mrs. Sobey's, Mrs. Bierman and Mrs. Roberts; Mrs. Jungman's, Mrs. Dowell and Mrs. Buell. Mr. Behling's, Mrs. Kubicki and Mrs. Stankus.

Room mothers will assist in preparations for special events, such as Halloween or Thanksgiving parties, and will assist in arranging displays. In fact, just about any of the numerous little chores teachers have in addition to teaching.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bech, Woodcrest subdivision, helped their niece, Mary Ann Rakow, celebrate her "sweet 16" birthday on Sept. 20 by taking her out to dinner on Saturday night. When they returned home she was guest of honor at a surprise birthday party attended by many of her young friends. The next day a family party was held in her honor.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Baumann have returned home after spending about a month at the home of their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Raynold Koser of Hale's Corners, who were injured in the crash of their private plane some time ago. The plane crashed near Strawberry Point in Iowa, and the four occupants, Mr. and Mrs. Koser and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mitchell, all were seriously injured. Tess has been filling in as housekeeper, nursemaid to the Koser children, and nurse's aid to the convalescing Kosers and Mitchells. Two of them are still confined to hospital beds, at home, with fractures, and Mr. Mitchell, with a broken back.

A Cub Scout meeting was held on Sept. 25 at the Channel Lake school. Ted Wozniak, who has been den chief for Den 1, was presented with

35th Anniversary Is Celebrated By Two Couples Of Channel Lake

By Pearl Kapell

CHANNEL LAKE—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Chase and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Runyard, all of Channel Lake, held a joint celebration of their 35th wedding anniversary on Sept. 25.

The two couples were married in a double wedding ceremony at St. Peter's church in Antioch.

At that time the church was the old wooden building, which has been replaced by the present modern structure. Father Lynch officiated at the ceremonies.

The reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Runyard, parents of Mrs. Paul (Mary Runyard) Chase, and Tom Runyard.

The couples are double in-laws, as Paul Chase and Mrs. Thomas (Harriet Chase) Runyard are brother and sister.

The two couples have celebrated every anniversary together since their wedding.

The big day started with a family breakfast at which the Chases' two daughters-in-law, Mary and Dorothy, were co-hostesses.

They served scrambled eggs, orange juice, toast, sweet rolls, homemade coffee cake and coffee.

All of the couples' children and their families were present except for two who were unable to attend—Nancy, recent bride of David Runyard, and Danny Runyard, who is at present stationed at Great Lakes.

Also present were Marie and George Hucker and Al Chase and Fred Runyard—which brought the number present to 27.

The two couples then went on an all-day trip, with several stops at sight-seeing attractions and for dinner.

They first visited the grotto at Dickeyville, Wis., part of an amazing series of structures built on the grounds of a Catholic monastery, composed entirely of small stones.

More Books Are Added To Library

The Antioch Township library has many of the new books which were ordered in memory of Dean Williams and they are available to borrowers.

Five of the books will be added to the library's theater collection. They include two of the excellent collections of plays that John Gassner has edited:

"Twenty Best Plays of the Modern American Theatre" and "Twenty Best European Plays on the American Stage."

These collections are especially valuable for library use because the complete text and stage directions for each play is given.

Sheldon Cheney's famous book, "The Theatre," is subtitled "Three Thousand Years of Drama, Acting and Stagecraft."

The latest edition has been revised to cover the Little theatre movement and the drama during and since World War II.

J. Walker McSpadden's "Operas and Musical Comedies" discusses almost every musical drama that has seen performance from "Orpheus" to the recent "South Pacific" and "Call Me Madame."

One excellent feature of this book is the index of characters in grand opera in addition to the general index.

Elmer Rice has been writing plays and novels since 1915.

"The Living Theatre" is a comprehensive and challenging survey of varied aspects of both the American and foreign theatrical production by one who as playwright, producer, and director is conversant with the inner workings of stagecraft.

John Tasker Howard is a leading authority in the field of American music from Colonial days to the present.

His book, "Our American Music," is particularly useful for his brief biographies of American composers and for discussions of the peculiarly American forms such as folk music; the music of the Indian and the Negro, ragtime and jazz.

In the formative years of our republic the titanic struggle between the ideals of Hamilton and Jefferson determined the course of our government.

Claude B. Bowers' "Jefferson and Hamilton" is a masterly exposition of their ideas which still have validity in our own time.

From Key West, Fla., to Brownsville, Texas, the Gulf of Mexico is bordered by a lovely land of tropical greenery and white sands.

Harnett Kane, in "The Golden Coast," draws an affectionate portrait of this land which has been ruled under many flags and which is permeated with a Latin flavor unknown to the rest of the continental United States.

The Chicago Motor club warns against hurrying across railroad tracks immediately after a train has passed. Remember, a second train may be coming from the other direction.

Fox Lake Hills

By Jim Jankowiak

FOX LAKE HILLS—The Fox Lake Hills Sports club will hold its monthly meeting tonight. All members are requested to attend as there are quite a number of items to be taken care of.

Plans will have to be made so the members can figure on some good pheasant and duck hunting.

It's also time to start planning on other winter sports such as skiing and fall fishing (best time of year for bass).

The Woman's Auxiliary will hold its meeting on Wednesday, Oct. 7. The ladies have a few matters to take care of in relation to their forthcoming Harvest Dance.

The Teen club held a meeting last Tuesday for the election of officers for the new term. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Conrad with her and Buzz Carpenter, association vice-president, acting as chaperones.

President Harold Riley also dropped in for a while to talk to the teens.

Results of the balloting are as follows: president, Mary Ellen Dvork; vice-president, John Spaulding; secretary, Pat Riley; treasurer, Frank Alex.

Farm Pond Tour Scheduled Oct. 9

A farm pond tour will be held in Lake county Friday morning, Oct. 9.

This tour, which has been arranged by Elmer Offerman, soil conservationist with the soil conservation service and Ray T. Nicholas, Lake county farm adviser, will include two Lake county farms.

The first stop will be at the Burton Lee farm at 9 a.m. The Lee farm is located at the northeast intersection of the Volo-Gilmer Fairfields roads.

The farm is about two and one-half miles southeast of Volo and about three miles northwest of route 63. At this farm visitors will see a farm pond under construction.

The second stop, at 11 a.m., will be at the Gaylord Donnelly farm located on Casey road, about one mile east of route 45, about 3/4-mile west of route 63 and about 2 miles northwest of Libertyville.

At the Donnelly farm the group will have an opportunity to see a farm pond that was completed this summer.

Others who will assist with the tour in addition to Nicholas and Offerman, are John Whelan, civil engineer of the soil conservation service; Donald Adams, office manager of the Lake county ASC; and Bruce Muench, fish biologist of the state department of conservation.

Everyone who has an interest in ponds is invited to attend. Experts will discuss the designing, construction and maintenance of farm ponds, weed control, fish management and other factors.

Bowling Inconsistencies A Puzzle Even To One Who Loves the Game

By Pearl Kapell

CHANNEL LAKE—Bowling season has opened with a bang—or a crash, might fit the case better. Anyway it's plenty noisy.

Watching, one marvels at the little inconsistencies of human nature. Here are fathers and mothers who groan and scream "quiet," just because Johnny shoots his cap gun in the house, or Susie slams the door. Amid the crash of 16 pound bowling balls and falling pins, they beam happily, as though all were peace and quiet.

You have to yell to make yourself heard, and numerous people do. Does it bother anyone? Certainly not.

A parent who claims the noise of Ricky Nelson drawling "There'll Never Be Anyone Else But You," to the beat of a "doghouse," will soon drive him mad, blossoms like a flower amid this bedlam.

Generous, kindly people, who would treat you to a drink anytime, take quite a different attitude when it comes to "beer frames."

If you are so unfortunate as not to get a strike, or at least nine pins, on this frame, there will be a forced cordiality on the part of your teammates when you return to your seat.

Repeat this faux pas a few times, or be so inept as to get only six or seven pins, and you will find your teammates drawing away from you as you return to your seat on the bench.

You will have somewhat the same feeling as a leper, as people try inconspicuously to avoid touching you and greet your gay sallies with a forced smile.

Bowling, like every sport, has its traditions of good sportsmanship.

Now, I will freely admit that I am not a good sport, and I think the whole idea is silly.

I hate to lose, I like to win, and why should anyone have to pretend he's glad he's a poor bowler?

I know somebody has to win, and somebody has to lose, but why should I pretend I enjoy losing?

I don't.

It makes me feel like kicking

ATHS Coming Events Told

Coming events for Antioch Township high school students that may be of interest to parents and other adults as well, were announced by the high school PTA as follows:

Oct. 2—ATHS football at Warren; first game 8:30 p.m.

Oct. 5—First semester registration for adult evening school program, 7:30 to 9 p.m. at school office.

Oct. 9—Homecoming pep rally and bonfire on high school campus, 8 p.m.

Oct. 10—Homecoming parade, 11 a.m.; homecoming football game with Grant high of Fox Lake, with first game 12:30 p.m.; homecoming dance, 8:30 to 11:30 p.m.

Oct. 10—Antioch Township high school bond election, 12 noon to 8 p.m. at three polling places.

someone in the shins—preferably the person who beat me.

Next choice for this honor would be the person who smiles brightly at me, and says, "You'll do better next time."

How does he know I'll do better next time? How does he know I'll ever do any better?

And anyway, I know perfectly well he doesn't really care whether I do better or not, and when someone mouths these polite platitudes at me, I feel a strong urge to snarl back, "Ah-H, Shadd-up."

Bowling also has its pet superstitions.

To anyone who doesn't bowl they seem pretty silly, but it's best not to voice this thought if you're among bowlers.

One is that if a man has a string of strikes going, you never, never mark up his score. If you do, you will immediately break his luck and he'll miss on the next frame.

If you should ever be so unfortunate as to make this error, you'll be very glad that someone passed the anti-lynching law.

Although the general attitude will be that hanging's too good for you.

Another superstition is that if the bowler on the alley on either side of you has a railroad up, don't throw your strike ball until said railroad has been removed.

If you do, you'll surely get a railroad. I don't really know whether this works out or not.

With me, it probably wouldn't because I'd probably throw my strike ball in the gutter.

I know a girl who threw 12 straight gutter balls once. She's never bowled since.

It seems to me that this shows poor reasoning on her part. To manage to hit any one portion of the alley 12 straight times seems like wonderful control to me.

Just think what a bowler she would have been, if she'd just moved her ball up onto the alley.

There are probably hundreds of little personal superstitions peculiar to the bowler who cherishes them.

A new shoelace he had put in his shoes the day he got a big game series, and which will never, never be replaced, with new portions tied on when the old one breaks.

A certain article of clothing worn during a lucky streak. Any little article he may have been carrying at the time.

All in all, bowling is a wonderful sport. It may not do much for your character, but it's bound to improve your vocabulary.

They may not be the kind of words you'd use in front of the children, but they're wonderful for relieving your feelings.

And if you just can't make a 200 average, you can always console yourself with the thought that it's wonderful exercise.

And if you get tired of exercising, you can always repair to the bar and find a congenial person with whom you can swap lies about the wonderful series you had just last week.

Lotus Woods, Wildwood News

By Jean Wrona
Justice 7-6082

Belated birthday greetings to Francis Black and Patty Fick of Wildwood, whose birthdays were on Sept. 23.

A potluck picnic was held Saturday at the Lotus Woods park. It was enjoyed by all, despite the bad weather.

Last Saturday there were a few surprises at the Wrona household. A small gathering was held to honor Miss Jeannie Wrona on her 17th birthday. Those attending were her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Grzyh and her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Grzyh, all of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Striblen of Lotus Woods are happily entertaining his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Striblen of Chicago, and his aunt, Mrs. Herbert Salisbury of San Rafael, Calif.

Best wishes for a speedy recovery go to Tom Prendergast of Wildwood, who was seriously injured while playing golf last Sunday. He is recovering at St. Therese hospital in Waukegan.

A bit of excitement was caused when a limb of a tree broke a power line in the rear of the Harry Gurney home, on Belden ave. and Circle drive. It ignited and burned a children's play house and cut off the electric power to a good part of Lotus Woods.

Happy birthday to Nancy Mack of Dunn's lake, who will celebrate her birthday Oct. 6.

Miss Norma Thompson of Wildwood spent a weekend with her parents. She is a student nurse at the Norwegian American hospital of Chicago.

Another fresh one from Pontiac!

The inspired beauty of perfect proportion!

The precision control of Wide-Track Wheel Design!

The softer ride of supple suspension!

The wide choice of vigorous Tempest V-8 Engines tailored to economy or high performance!

The car craftsmen who developed Wide-Track Wheels, the innovation that brought a new standard of roadability to the American passenger car, present another fresh original for 1960!

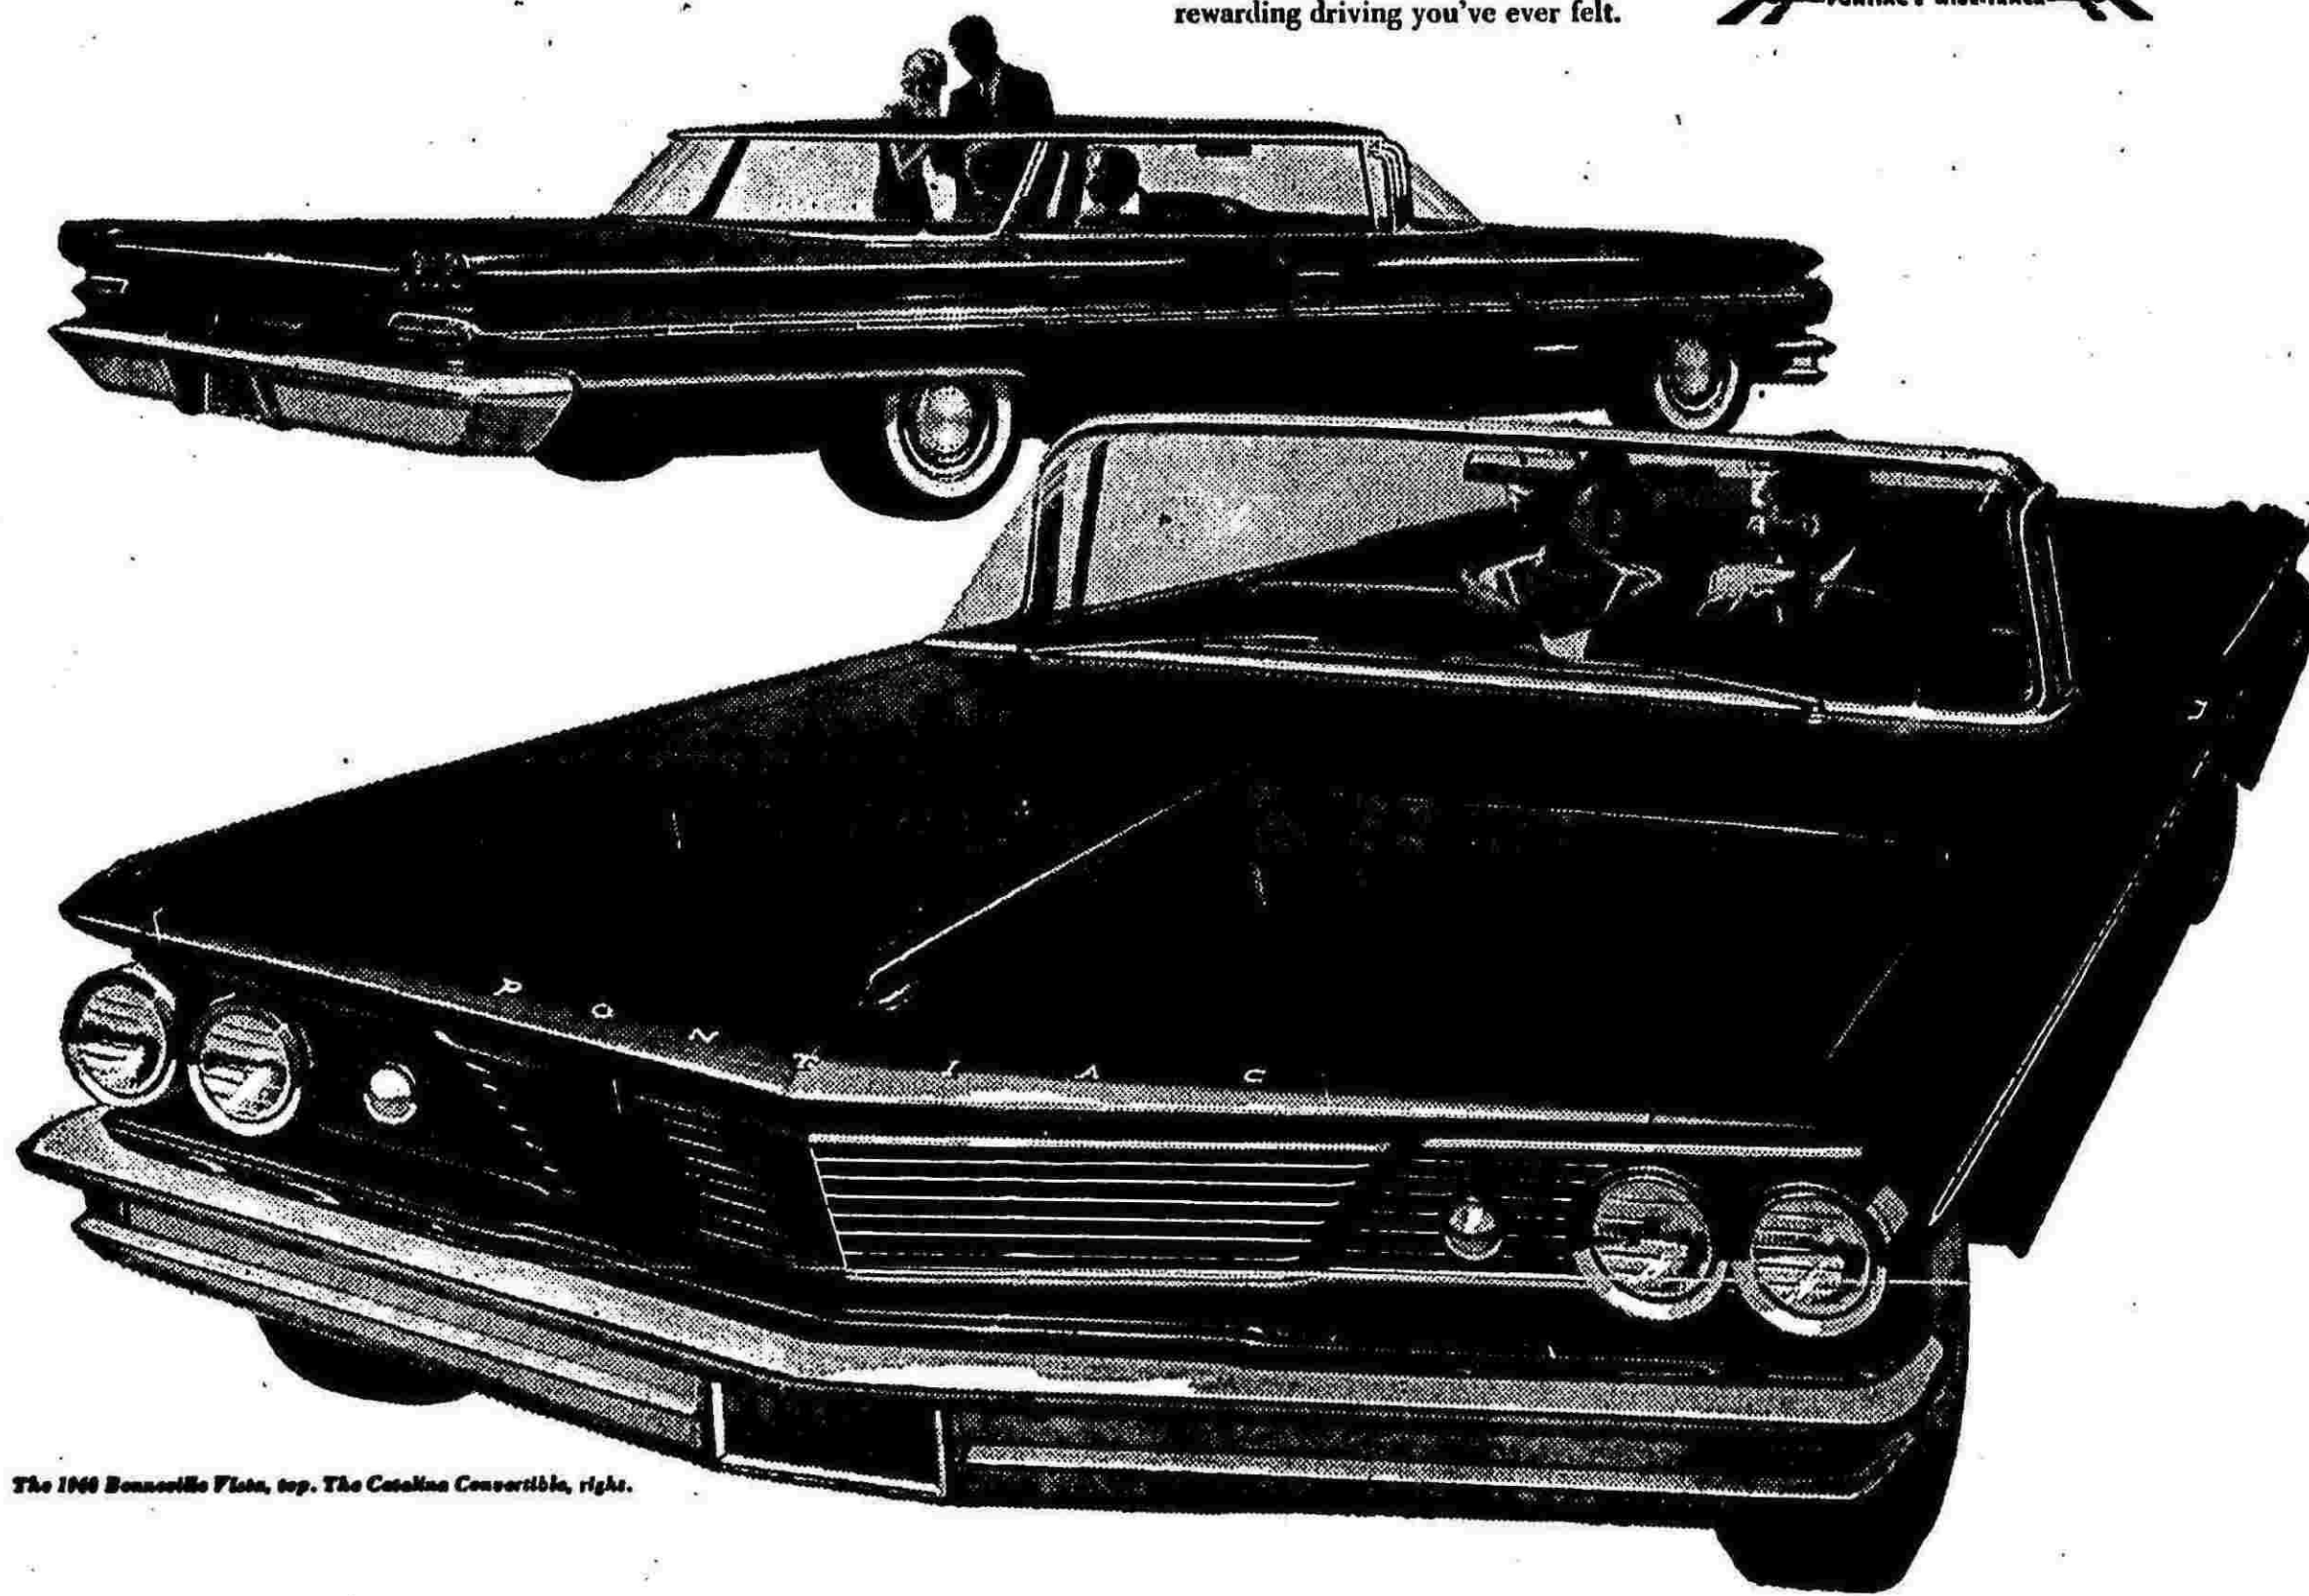

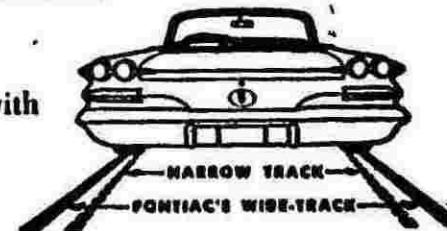

With clean, crisp lines they've composed a delightful rightness of form with unity and rhythm.

Into the proved principle of Wide-Track (wheels farther apart for a steadier stance) they've engineered an ingeniously improved suspension system. This combination of a firm foundation and supple suspension gives you flawless control, more skill in the fine art of driving, smooth stability, bump-yielding softness.

The power plant is typically Pontiac. A wide range of restless, ground-gaining power packages to choose from. All are husky V-8's, ranging from the frugal 425E economy engine that prefers regular grade gasoline to the fiery Tempest 425.

Haven't you been an admiring spectator of Pontiacs long enough? Isn't this your year to become a participant in Pontiac pleasure, to move up to Pontiac ownership, where the enjoyment is the fullest, where the point of view is the freshest?

Wide-Track Wheels give you swayless stability, solid comfort. You maneuver with skillful sureness, accurate control. It's the sweetest, most precise, most rewarding driving you've ever felt.
